

Private Flute Lessons

Flute Lessons Overview

I am not your typical run-of-the-mill flute teacher. In my studio, flute students are introduced to the most contemporary flute playing techniques available today through explorations in new ways to experience music. Students are exposed to a wide range of repertoire and daily exercises designed to improve tone, technique, posture and strengthen performance skills using unconventional methods designed to help students think outside of the box. My primary objective with each student is to establish what music and music making means to them on an individual basis.

Lesson Structure

Lessons are typically scheduled in 1 hour time slots once a week, however half-hour lessons are also available. Each lesson proceeds systematically through long tones, harmonics, scale studies, etudes, duets and solo repertoire. Students are encouraged to structure their individual practice routine in a manner similar to that of their lessons. In addition to individual practice, students will be expected to complete weekly listening assignments where they will encounter standard and non-standard repertoire.

Studio Policies

Daily practice is required with a recommended minimum of 30 minutes of individual practice per day for beginners and 1 hour for intermediate to advanced students. Attendance at all scheduled lessons is required. Exceptions due to illness may be arranged at least 24 hours in advance by contacting the instructor via email or phone. A notebook is required at every lesson in order to track individual progress. This notebook also serves as a handy reminder of the concepts discussed during each lesson.

Rates:

$50/hour; $25/half-hour

Thank you very much for your interest in the Rachel Taylor Geier Flute Studio. For more information or to schedule lessons, please contact me at (530) 400-5438 or email me at racheltgeier@gmail.com.

Please also visit my website at www.racheltaylorgeier.org.

Happy Fluting!